

Education Resource Group is proud to present:

K-12 Literacy Institute with Stephanie Harvey, Debbie Miller, and Cris Tovani August 10, 11 & 12, 2010

Overview:

This workshop is a three-day K-12 Literacy Institute, led by three of the top authors and educators in the country. Each morning will begin with a keynote address from one of the speakers and an interactive activity for all participants. During this time, participants are able to interact across grade levels and hear each speaker deliver a message that is appropriate for all grade levels. After lunch, participants will form three breakout groups divided by grade level (roughly Elementary, Middle, and High School), and each speaker will lead a breakout group for the remainder of the day. Participants will be with the same breakout group and leader for two afternoons, and will have the opportunity to go deeper into literacy issues particular to each age group.

About Our Presenters:

Stephanie Harvey was an elementary and special ed teacher for fifteen years. She now works as a staff developer and educational consultant. Insatiably curious about student thinking, she is a teacher first and foremost and continues to work in schools on a regular basis savoring any time spent with kids. The author of three books, Nonfiction Matters, Strategies That Work (with Anne Goudvis), and the recently published Comprehension and Collaboration: Inquiry Circles in Action (with Harvey Daniels), Stephanie works with educators, schools and districts to implement progressive literacy practices.

Debbie Miller taught and learned from children in the Denver Public Schools for thirty years. She is the author of Teaching with Intention: Defining Beliefs, Aligning Practice, Taking Action, and Reading with Meaning: Teaching Comprehension in the Primary Grades. She worked for many years with the Denver-based Public Education and Business Coalition (PEBC), and now presents workshops and works extensively with schools and districts on long-range planning and development of literacy programs.

Cris Tovani taught elementary school for ten years before becoming a high school reading specialist and English teacher. In addition to teaching full-time, she is a nationally known consultant focusing on issues of reading and content comprehension in classrooms. Cris has also worked for many years as a staff developer for the Denver-based Public Education and Business Coalition (PEBC). She is the author of the books I Read It but I Don't Get It and Do I Really Have to Teach Reading?
